

50X1-HUM

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
INFORMATION FROM FOREIGN DOCUMENTS OR RADIO BROADCASTS

COUNTRY Communist China REPORT

SUBJECT Sociological - Labor movement CD NO.

HOW PUBLISHED Daily newspapers DATE OF INFORMATION 1949

WHERE PUBLISHED Hong Kong DATE DIST. 3 Jan 1950

DATE PUBLISHED 26 Oct - 12 Nov 1949 NO. OF PAGES 3

LANGUAGE Chinese SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF ESPIONAGE ACT 50 U.S.C. 31 AND 32, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR THE REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS IN ANY MANNER TO AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

SOURCE Newspapers as indicated.

ALL-CHINA FEDERATION OF LABOR TO HEAD
LABOR MOVEMENT IN COMMUNIST CHINA

DISSOLVES CHINA LABOR ASSOCIATION -- Wen-hui Pao, 7 Nov 49

Pei-p'ing, 5 November (NCNA) -- On 5 November, more than 42 representatives of the China Labor Association met at the All-China Federation of Labor Hall in Pei-p'ing and dissolved their labor association. Former members of unions under the China Labor Association will hereafter join unions belonging to the All-China Federation of Labor. Li Li-san, Deputy Chairman of the All-China Federation of Labor, and eight observers were present at the conference.

Chu Hsueh-fan, Chairman of the China Labor Association said, "The time has come for the China Labor Association to abandon its work and its members join with various labor unions under the direction of the All-China Federation of Labor. Only by working together can the people of China fulfill the great task of establishing the New China."

HOLD LABOR CONFERENCES -- Ta Kung Pao, 8 Nov 49

Pei-p'ing, 7 November (NCNA) -- On 29 October the 3-day conference of the labor representatives in Heng-yang, Hunan Province, came to an end and the establishment of the Heng-yang General Labor Union was announced. More than 148 delegates representing 20,000 workers of transport, communications, printing and publishing, industry, and handicraft unions attended the conference.

The preparatory committee of the Fukien Province General Labor Union held a conference of labor unions' representatives from 27 October to 1 November. More than 150 attended, including delegates from military, government, and public enterprises of this city.

- 1 -

CLASSIFICATION		CONFIDENTIAL		CONFIDENTIAL
STATE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NAVY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NSRB	DISTRIBUTION

50X1-HUM

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

The preparatory committees of the Northwest China General Labor Union and Hsi-an General Labor Union, on 30 October, sent telegrams to all workers' groups in Sinkiang Province to organize workers in that province by May Day 1950 to help in building a new Sinkiang.

LABOR ACTIVE IN T'IENTSING AND OTHER PLACES -- Ta Kung Pao, 12 Nov 49

Pei-p'ing, 10 November (NCNA) -- Ch'iu Chin, Deputy Chairman of the Preparatory Committee, T'ien-ching General Labor Union, at the fourth preparatory committee meeting said that the T'ien-ching Labor Union had recruited 170,000 members between June and September 1949.

On 30 October the Hang-chou Branch of the Shang-hai District Railroad Workers Union was officially organized. The total membership in labor unions of the Cichang-Kiangsi Railroad Bureau has already reached more than 7,028.

More than 240 attended the workers' conference held in Hsiamen (Amoy) on 3 November. The conference passed a resolution to establish the preparatory committee of the Hsia-men General Labor Union and appointed 27 members of the preparatory committee including Lin I-hsin.

The cadre committee of the Ch'ang-sha Branch of the Hunan Province General Labor Union is now actively organizing labor unions in nearby Hsiens. Of the 100,000 workers in 32 Hsiens 10,000 have become members of labor unions.

RETURNS FROM WFTU CONFERENCE -- Wen-hui Pao, 28 Oct 49

Pei-p'ing, 27 October (NCNA) -- On 24 October, more than 1,000 railroad workers in the Shang-hai area assembled in front of the Shang-hai Railroad Administration Bureau building to welcome the Chinese delegates returning from the World Federation of Trade Unions Conference.

One delegate stated that workers in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Poland are doing great work in building a new democracy and the Chinese working class is receiving praise and respect from their brother working classes all over the world."

CADRES TO INTRODUCE LABOR TACTICS -- Wen-hui Pao, 28 Oct 49

Northwest Front dispatch -- The preparatory committee of the Northwest China General Labor Union recently dispatched about 80 cadre workers into northern Shensi and Kansu provinces to demonstrate labor union tactics to various labor union officials.

ESTABLISHES PREPARATORY COMMITTEE -- Wen-hui, 28 Oct 49

Fu-kien dispatch -- On 20 October the preparatory committee for the Fukien Province General Labor Union was established. Wu Liang-chieh and Lin Hsiu-te were appointed chairman and deputy chairman, respectively, of the committee.

HOLDS ROUND-TABLE DISCUSSION GROUP -- Wen-hui Pao, 26 Oct 49

Kuang-chou, 26 October (NCNA) -- More than 800 workers' representatives from 23 organized groups in Kuang-chou attended a round-table discussion meeting today. The meeting was sponsored by the Kuang-chou Committee of the

- 2 -

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

50X1-HUM

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

CCP; the preparatory committee of the Kuang-chou General Labor Union; and the Kuang-chou Military Control Commission.

The groups represented include the Kwangtung--Han-k'ou Railroad Bureau, Communications Bureau, Postal Administration Bureau, the Kuang-chou Electric Power Company, Tzu-lai Water Works, Kuang-chou Chamber of Commerce, and the Seamen's Union.

Chu Ching-wen, Deputy Chairman of the preparatory committee, Kuang-chou General Labor Union, and Chu Kuang-ts'ai, representing the Kuang-chou Military Control Committee, were two of the speakers.

Chu Kuang-ts'ai said in part, "Now that Kuang-chou is liberated we can all work together to build a new Kuang-chou. We must assist the PLA and the People's government in taking over the administration of Kuang-chou, and help to restore and increase production. We must maintain peace and order by clearing out special agents and subversive elements from the city."

Chairman Liao I-kuang of the preparatory committee, Kuang-chou General Labor Union, stressed the immediate duty of the working class.

The representative from the All-China Federation of Labor called on everyone present to establish labor unions so that workers' demands can be fulfilled.

- E N D -

- 3 -

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~